

ASHPAC presents
www.ashpac.org

Meet The Administration Presentation of “Lighting the way” Awards

Wednesday, September 6, 2017 at 7:00 PM
Ashland Middle School Activity Room

ASHPAC advocates for children with special needs who live in and/or attend school in Ashland.

Join us in welcoming Ashland’s administrators, staff, and educators for the 2017-2018 school year, including James Adams, Superintendent, and Kathryn Silva, Director of Student Services.

Join us as we present our annual “Lighting the way” award to the many educators nominated by parents and caretakers for exceptional dedication to children with special needs.

Join us in meeting new and familiar faces. We are a diverse and welcoming group, with members representing all district schools, as well as, out-of-district students. Come for support, ideas, and to have your voice heard.

Please join us

Meet the professionals involved in your child’s education.
Celebrate the successes, dedication, and hard work of our educators.
Meet other parents/caretakers of children with IEPs and 504 plans.

ASHPAC “Lighting the way”